

13th Biennial of European Towns and Town Planners

Planning on the edge

10th - 13th September 2019 | University of Plymouth | UK

Call for presentations : Deadline 30th April 2019

Specify: theme, speaker and summary of presentation (300 words)

Please submit your proposal to present via email : ECTPPlymouth@plymouth.ac.uk

The central theme of this conference is to investigate planning in places which are defined by their peripherality or location between two or more boundaries.

- Coastal urban regeneration
- Marine and coastal environments
- Boundaries, cities and territories
- Urban spaces on the edge

Confirmed speakers:

Lord Kerlade: Former Head of the British House Civil Service and former Chief Executive of local authorities, Houses and Communities Agency, Permanent Secretary of Department for Communities and Local Government

Ronald Waterman: International specialist in coastal development and land reclamation.

Organised by

- Plymouth City Council
- Destination Plymouth
- University of Plymouth Planning School
- ECTP
- RTPi

Further information:

www.plymouth.ac.uk/whats-on/european-council-of-town-planners-biennial-conference-2019